

Food for thought

As food outlets will be limited on this trip please bring your picnic basket and plenty of water. M.T. At Hartley village will be compliments of Pauline and Harry. Lunch stop at Capertee and A.T, AT Glen Davis time permitting. It will be late afternoon when we get to Kandos, the Henbury golf club have a bistro with an extensive menu, anyone wishing to join us for evening meal please let me know at start of tour so I can book. There are other food outlets in Kandos/Rylstone mentioned in your brochure. Food festival is on the Saturday A.T. Will be at Dunns Swamp . There are bakeries and grocery shops In Kandos/Rylstone for you stock up for the next part of journey which is Rylstone to Coolah there are no food outlets bring lunch and M.T. Time permitting we will have A.T. At the Black Stump rest area Coolah. Binnaway will probably be another late arrival, there is a Thai eat in or take away restruant but the Exchange hotel has offered to do a two course baked dinner cost of $20 I have taken the liberty of accepting their hospitality, again anyone who does not wish to do this please let me know at start of journey. The Barracks nhas a fuuly functional kitchen and B.B.Q and provide provisions for light breakfast. Monday being our last night I thought a get together B.B.Q could be discussed.Suggest you bring lunch and M.T for our trip to Wurrumbungles on Tues there is a kiosk but could be expensive. Regards Pauline and Harry
